

A Russian Official Says the US Will Collapse Next Year

By Jimmy DeYoung

Igor Panarin, the Dean of the Russian Foreign Ministry's School of Future Diplomats, is teaching that President Obama will order martial law this year, the US will split into six rump-states before 2011 and Russia and China will become the backbones of a new world order.

Panarin says there is a high possibility that the collapse of the US will occur by 2010 which is a negative view of the US that has been flowing from the Kremlin in recent years and in particular from the Russian Prime Minister Vladimir Putin.

Putin has likened the US to Nazi Germany's third reich and blames Washington for the global financial crisis that has pounded the Russian economy.

Jimmy's Prophetic Prospective on the News

The fact that the US will collapse by 2010 and that Russia and China will emerge as the backbones for a new world order as quoted from a Russian official is in reality very close to what Bible prophecy reveals for the Last Days.

The statement by a Russian Foreign Affairs official that the US is about to collapse is part of the rhetoric that Russian officials are propagating these days to distract the Russians from the financial crisis that has pounded the Russian economy recently. The added statement that Russia and China will emerge as the backbones of the new world order is powerful evidence that this world is coming very close to the End Times as God's Word reveals about the events of the Last Days.

Both Russia and China are mentioned in Bible prophecy by other names. Russia as Magog in Ezekiel 38:2 and China as the kings of the East in Revelation 16:12. Ezekiel 38:2 says Russia will lead an alignment of nations against Israel. Revelation 16:12 says the kings of the East, China, will come to Jerusalem for the beginning of the campaign of Armageddon; however, before both of these prophecies are fulfilled, the Rapture takes place, an event where Jesus calls Christians to be with Him in the heavenlies.

Since Christians are the backbone of the US, at the Rapture when all Christians leave earth, naturally the US will collapse.
